

"In the act of worship itself, the experience of liberation becomes a constituent of the community's being . . . It is the power of God's Spirit invading the lives of the people, "building them up where they are torn down and propping them up on every leaning side".

JAMES CONE

MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

Pentecost Sunday

Rev. Dr. Francys Johnson, Senior Pastor

Our Guest Pastor

Dr. Ashley Morris

Goal-driven. Student-focused. Highly motivated. They are all buzz words that adequately describe Dr. Ashley Morris, but do not convey the fullness of her passions. She is committed to the process of learning. In each of her vocations.

As Vice President of Academic Affairs at Savannah Technical College, Dr. Morris leads a team of faculty and staff that are transforming practitioners and providing learning experiences that equip their students for the workforce and further education.

As an Ordained Elder in the AME Church, she leads thirsty people toward the Living Well to strengthen the faith journey of those who are weak and help foster the faith journey for those who have lost their way.

In both vocations, she leads people who are becoming. She holds a Doctor of Higher Educational Leadership from Georgia Southern University along with a Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in English from Mercer University and Georgia Southern University.

Dr. Morris is a cheerleader, point of connection, resource provider, mentor, warrior, infuser, public servant, motivational speaker, and strategic consultant. Today, this Church is glad she is God's preacher who will share the word.

"No matter the arena, I remind people of the beauty of the journey and teach them how to achieve the outcomes they desire." - Dr. Ashley Morris
